SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS

INTRODUCTION

Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' derivative complaints on March 22, 2004 ("Motion to Dismiss"), which the derivative Plaintiffs opposed. On June 11, 2004, this Court held a hearing on the Motion to Dismiss.

On June 29, 2004, Sonus announced that it had received a formal order of private investigation from the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The SEC had previously made an informal inquiry into Sonus after Sonus informed the SEC that Sonus had commenced an investigation of its own delay in reporting fourth quarter 2003 and fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 results. The preliminary SEC investigation has now been converted to a formal SEC investigation. See Attachment A.

DISCUSSION

At issue on the Motion to Dismiss is whether plaintiffs were excused from making demand due to the lack of independence or diligence of the Board. Plaintiff submits that the elevation of the SEC's inquiry into a formal investigation suggests that the SEC is dissatisfied with Sonus' own investigation. The formal investigation raises a reasonable doubt as to whether the Defendant's Board of Directors failed to put in place internal controls, policies and procedures to adequately supervise and monitor Sonus' revenue recognition practices in violation of their duties recognized in In re Caremark Intern. Inc. Derivative Litig., 698 A.2d 959, 970 (Del. Ch. 1996) and are continuing to abdicate their responsibilities through the inadequacy of their investigation. See Plaintiffs' Joint Memorandum of Law in Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss at pp. 13-14.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiffs submit that the Motion to Dismiss should be denied. Alternatively, if the Court is inclined to grant defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Plaintiff requests that such dismissal be made without prejudice to file and amended complaint to add these matters that are still in development.
